YEAR ONE AT CEDARVILLE

We're glad you are here and anticipate great contributions from the class of '89 and from the new members of other classes as well.

This collection of pictures of College Week and new faces in the 'ville has been prepared to help you remember what we trust has been the start of an exciting experience, your time at Cedarville. This year we have included some of your comments and reactions to things that have already taken place. Maybe you will identify with some of the thoughts shared.

It is our prayer and desire that your time and experiences here will be used of God to make you better prepared for His service. Each new day and each new contact provides opportunities to grow and stretch out. Many things will change during your time here.

We trust that the friends and the experiences from the 'ville will be cherished and nurtured for the rest of your life.

We will be in touch.

Saying Goodbye
*Wasn't bad here. Leaving my house and friends was a real tear-jerker Harder for Mom & Dad. A little teary
Hard - but the RAs made it a little easier!
Was hard but meant saying hello to the new challenge of college life!
Mom was glad to get rid of me. She was turning gray before her time. I didn't cry.
Couldn't have come at a better time.
Not too difficult, not only was I ready to be on my own, but I also live only 45 minutes away!
So long Folks, have a nice vacation...see you at Thanksgiving.
No big deal, I knew this is where I belong, so I accepted it
My father prayed with me before they left, and he started crying - so did I.*

Biggest Disappointment

Closets that are too small

No cars for Freshmen

Too many Freshmen meetings, not enough activities for meeting others in beginning of quarter

First college exam!!!

No crunchy peanut butter and my first blind date

Guys don't ask out many girls

I can't use my microwave or my car!

There are too many meetings that Freshmen have to go to. Ease off.

Housing Registration

*It went very smoothly without being confusing
Went smoothly - no hassle
Lines were quick - people working could have been friendlier
Organized - as "painless" as possible*

Id Pictures

*I looked like a conehead
It looked like I had taken a 9 1/2 hour trip!
Good pic! Doesn't look like me.
$5 bucks ain't that much for a new one!
Mine was beautiful. Good job!
Quick - Boy! Did I look funny!*

Class Registration

As organized as possible, I went through pretty quick Went smoothly - but I think that's because I was at the front of the line!

*Wasn't as tough/long as I had heard it would be Went pretty well but why do they have OT Survey at 8:00 A.M.?
 Went fairly well - a little confusing
 Went through line in 10 minutes*

Class Clash

*Fun! Good chance to meet upperclassmen Go JUNIORS!
 Okay, but violent!*

First Call Home

*It made me homesick but it was good to talk to my parents
Send money
Yes, I am able to make a long distance phone call. Thank you!
My Mom called me wondering why I hadn't called yet! She's worse than me!
Waited a whole week, asked for letters
"Collect!"
Tried to act brave but was a little shaky inside.
It really helped ease the pain.
I didn't have to pay.
Too expensive
Mom said, "Honey, it's such a change with you gone. Your bed's always made now."*

Most Pleasant Surprise

*The rules aren't as bad as I thought
When my grandma called just to say hi
Parents sent me a dozen roses for my birthday
Guys here are really nice - they actually can smile and say "hi" too
Both of my roommates are really very nice - we get along yet.
A phone call.*

Mondays At Six

*Interesting
Some were helpful. Didn't enjoy a couple of them. The last one was good.
Was helpful and sometimes fun
Really helpful! Topics were excellent for new students - made me realize we're all adjusting
I liked the last one
Four Mondays of watching people sleep
A good help but time schedule could use some improvement
The last one was good, but the others could have been a lot better
Some were good, some were bad*

College Week Schedule

*There were way too many meetings - I think we could have combined some!
Great - told me what I needed to know.
It's nice to know what we are supposed to do, when, and where it's to be done.
Kept us going but that's good - get mind off being homesick*

Transfer Meeting

*I met a lot of people who could understand how it was to be a transfer.
Very enjoyable - got to meet other people*

Praise Time

*I enjoyed it very much, it was a worthwhile experience to say the least. I felt it was a good time of praise to God
I really enjoyed the fellowship and singing
People were overall tired, distracting and very hot.
Good singing
They need to have everyone sing more; not just listen to others
It was really neat. The best part was when everyone sang together*

Jeffery Siegel Artist Series

Was tremendous! Had front row seats to see him tickle the ivories!

Very talented. I was impressed.

I liked this for the first 20 minutes. I was bored the rest of the time. It shouldn't have been required.

Excellent.

Not into classical stuff to much. It was OK

I'm trying to be sophisticated but I still don't enjoy the music

Didn't enjoy but now I'm very cultured

I thought he was good on piano, but I don't like anything even remotely Classical.

Exceptional!

Very good, high class act for a "little Christian College"

As good as a piano concert can be!

This was fantastic. It made me look forward to the concerts still to come.

Eating In The Cafeteria

It's Okay - nothing can compare to home-cooking

The food is good, there is an excellent variety; "hot" is hot and "cold" food is cold - good!

Nice scenery - the food wasn't bad either

Hate the lines. The food is alright.

Nice scenery, have learned to pick strategic times to eat

Great for the diet - I don't eat anything.

Some of the better food I've had at colleges

An experience....unfamiliar faces, unfamiliar names, and often times unfamiliar food.

Better than other college food

Nice place to relax and meet new people even though you may not know what you're eating

Lines, lines, lines! Food....eh....meet friends though

Food is good

Food cold, company good

The cafeteria food is on the average very good. I like the variety of foods offered and the portions served.

College...I'm here!
 Yet the thought doesn't thrill me.
 Could it be that after all these years of planning saving,
 preparing...
 I'm not ready?

Today I feel like a grown-up child –
 I'm caught in a wrinkle of time.
 I want to move forward,
 to grab with both hands
 the future I see stretched before me.
 But to reach for the future
 I must pull away from the past.

So I'm stuck
 in the twilight zone of change, having left the old behind,
 but not yet prepared for the new.

I'm an immigrant on foreign soil.
 Everyone knows I'm new.
 It blusters from my face and shows in my uncertain stride.

I smile and nod my way through my initiation day
 of unfamiliar faces, hoping my facade of self-assurance holds up a little longer.

Dinner...lines of people.
 Moving, waiting.
 Stop and go.

Like multi-sectioned insects with a hundred heads and twice as many legs.
 Inching forward.
 Flailing. Ravenous.
 And I'm no different.
 I move when others move,
 choose what they choose,
 devour what they devour.
 Is this what college is like?
 A four-year feeding frenzy?

What's my number? What's my name?
 Either will do, it's all the same to the campus computer.
 212 Dorm Room, 118c English Lit,
 59 P.E. Locker,
 505-23-1970 Social Security,
 05902201 Bank Account,
 101 Biology, 4708 Lab partner's phone,
 36-22-3 Bike lock,
 87033-241 Student I.D.,
 Row 49, Seat 11.
 I need a calculator to discover who I am.

Does everyone feel this way?
 Lost, alone.
 Homesick for people who know them by name?
 There, I've said the work I've dreaded saying, vowed I'd never utter.

"Children get homesick, not adults."
 Where'd I get a notion like that?
 Being away from home and missing it has little to do with age,
 more with the quality of life left behind.
 To be homesick is a compliment to those you love.

It's 8 o'clock and all's well.
 I'm sitting down
 to an evening with my family, though they're 2,000 miles away and I'm in the library surrounded by staring strangers.

Should I start a chain reaction...
 walk from table to table,
 introducing myself,
 getting everyone doing it?
 I smile at the thought.
 It isn't in me
 to do something like that.

Still the idea's there:
 a bold thought.
 What next, bold actions?
 Maybe I'm changing already.

Changes, I conclude, can be welcomed.
 Every change is a challenge to grow,
 to become the person
 I am meant to be.
 The next four years will bring many changes.
 But let them come,
 I'll be ready.
